New Students Program Orientation Session – Tuesday 14 February 2023

We have several sessions planned for you to ensure we get you comfortable and familiar with tertiary life for the start of the semester. Our first event will commence at 9am where we will take through a general information session, applicable to all students studying within HMNS. Following this, you will switch location and head into a Program specific session. Finally, join us for lunch and get to know your fellow students and other members of the school.

All of School	9.00am – 10.00am Room 200, Advanced Engineering Building (#49)
Program Session	10.00am – 12.00pm Room 101, Abel Smith Building (#23)
Lunch	12.00pm – 1.00pm Level 1, Human Movement Studies Building (#26B)

Please RSVP by 28 January 2023

Finding your way

Find everything you need on campus using the UQ Maps app. Use the indoor and outdoor maps or try wayfinding to navigate directly to your next class, meal or study spot. Use live information to find parking spaces or see how busy the library is or follow the well-lit paths to travel safely at night. Download UQ Maps

What else is on?

You might also be interested in attending the Faculty of Health and Behavioural Sciences \(HaBS\) Orientation on Wednesday 15 February!! This session will provide you with an overview including where your School fits into the Faculty and UQ overall. It will be a great opportunity to meet some like-minded students from throughout Health and Behavioural Sciences and understand how the faculty can support you in your journey.
